Business Centre Guelph-Wellington secure three new directors to board

Gillian Cuthbert, Sandra Lastovic, and Jennifer Seberras join leadership team to help shape long-term vision for organization

July 20, 2021 (Guelph, ON). Business Centre Guelph-Wellington is pleased to welcome Gillian Cuthbert, Sandra Lastovic, and Jennifer Seberras to its board of directors, effective July 1, 2021.

“I’m thrilled to welcome Gillian, Jennifer and Sandra to the board of directors for the Business Centre,” said Carinta Mannarelli, Chair of the BCGW Board of Directors. “Bringing their wealth of experience in entrepreneurship to our board will directly impact our clients in a very real and positive way.”

Gillian Cuthbert is a Senior Relationship Manager at the Bank of Montréal (BMO Financial Group). Contributing more than 20 years progressive experience in the financial services industry to the board, Cuthbert is known locally for her volunteer work with several other boards and committees related to local business support.

Sandra Lastovic is the principal broker and owner of The Mortgage Centre franchise, serving Guelph and the surrounding area. She owns multiple real estate-related businesses, and is passionate about entrepreneurship. Lastovic has sat on the Boards of Directors for several organizations including the Guelph Community Health Centre and Ontario Agricultural College Alumni Association.

Jennifer Seberras is the leader and founder of Simplify Supply Chain Solutions, a local courier, logistics and warehousing company. She has several years experience in her field and holds a P. Log designation.

“I’m excited to work with these powerful, knowledgeable female leaders as part of the Business Centre’s leadership team,” said Kristel Manes, Executive Director, BCGW. “They each bring incredible experience that will add more diversity and perspective to shape the Business Centre’s initiatives, programs, services and funding streams.”

In the coming months, Cuthbert, Lastovic and Seberras will assist BCGW with strategic planning for the continued growth and success of the organization.
